My dear Sir:

Since Monday there has been a large box directly in the passage way at the foot of the stairs leading to our offices. It blocks the way and has been complained of by one of my clients. Mr Brooker, Mr Ennis & myself would feel obliged if you would have it removed. I don't know who owns it or to whom to give notice. I suspect it belongs to a former tenant in the 3d Story. Hoping you will have it removed I am Yrs Truly

To the Managers of the Corcoran Art Gallery, Washington, D.C.

If the Corcoran Gallery accepts the loan of paintings, I should like to send them one of mine, if they desire it. There are more of my friends who take an interest in my work in Washington during a year; than in any city in America, with the exception perhaps of ~~Boston~~; the Art Museum of Boston has one of my pictures, I should like the Corcoran Gallery to have another. Will you kindly let me know at your earliest convenience, if it will be agreeable to you to receive a painting, as I am likely to return to Boston at any time, and would like to make some arrangements on the way, to send one from the Penn. Academy of Fine arts, where the present Exhibition in Philadelphia closes in December. My address is "Strasburg, Virginia, P.O. Box 72," or "St. James Hotel, Boston, Mass." Either address will do, but that of Strasburg, Virginia will reach me more quickly for the present.

Very Respectfully

Hon. W. W. Corcoran,
Washington, D. C.,

Honourable and dear Sir,

Your very kind letter of the 18th inst., accepting the portrait of Mrs. R. H. Winslow, now Mrs. Page, for your art gallery in Washington was received. At Mr. Healy's suggestion I beg leave to say that the portrait will be sent on to Washington either to day or Monday next. Mr. Healy says that he would much prefer having it in your gallery than in the Academy of Design in this city. Allow me, my dear Sir, to thank you most sincerely on behalf of Mrs Page as well as myself for your kind permission to place the portrait in your gallery, and to compliment you on the very touching and beautifully expressed letter that I had the honour to receive from you in regard to it. With kindest regards from Mrs. Page and myself, I remain very respty. yr. obt. servt.

(over)

P.S. The portrait left this house this morning in perfect order. So said Mr. Healy who saw it last evening - Should the frame become damaged by moving it and needs repairs, or indeed if you prefer a new frame, please have it done to suit your own taste and order the bill to be sent to me at the above address.

My dear Mr. Macleod,

My price for the portrait of Cardinal Mc. Closkey is fifteen hundred dollars, no charge for the old frame.

So many have asked for my services, that I have written for prolonged leave of absence, should it be granted as my big case is not too much in your way, I beg that it may remain until I write to you for it.

Remember me very kindly to Mr. Corcoran and believe me faithfully yours

My dear Mr. MacLeod,

You will greatly oblige me if you will be so kind as to have the case containing my two portraits at the Park Avenue Hotel by the 15th Dec. I beg you to thank Mr. Corcoran for allowing them to remain so long in and near his splendid gallery.

Please allow the charges to follow the case, and with many thanks for your personal goodness to me in this matter,

I am, Faithfully yours

Dear Sir —

Will you please send me memo. of balance of expenses incurred on a/c of placing "Psyche" in position in the gallery?

I enclose stamp for which kindly mail me a copy of the Washington paper containing advertisement — advising the public that the work is on exhibition — I wish to send the paper a sketch of the work & its artist — as also a photograph of same (Psyche).

Please advise me also when the Trustees of the gallery are expected to have a session — when the proposal I submitted may be acted upon — Your early

favor will much oblige

Yours Truly
